

adjective

efficient

adverb

flash

attach

intended

common nouns

parts of speech

effective

prefix

(adjective) doing something without wasting time or energy	(noun) a word that describes a noun
(verb) to show something quickly	(noun) a word that describes a verb or an adjective
(adjective) how something is supposed to be	(verb) to put something onto something else
(noun phrase) the types of words in English - such as noun, verb, etc.	(noun) words for things that are not names; usually not capitalized
(noun) a grammar unit attached to the beginning of a word	(adjective) doing something successfully, as intended

preposition

verb

proper nouns

vocabulary

repetition

spaced

suffix

(noun) words that show action or existance or (noun) a word that shows location or relationship etc.

(noun) the words that a person knows in a language

(noun) words that are names of people and places; usually capitalized

(noun) doing something again or several times

(adjective) placed (put) some distance apart

(noun) a grammar unit attached to the end of a word